Company history/background

We've put Vive Virtual up for sale. Ideal for companies looking to expand their VR market.

Vive Virtual has been in the market for over 3 years. We opened in December 2016 in Barcelona.

We have opened several stores, both with white label and with the Vive Virtual brand.

We currently have a franchise in Madrid.

In Barcelona we have a 242 square meter premises with a very avant-garde image, with 14 Oculus Quest VR glasses, 3 HTC Vive.

The premises are completely open-plan, on a single floor facing the street, with two bathrooms, one adapted, a storage area, an office and a meeting room.

Vive Virtual is a registered trademark throughout Europe, and its website ranks highly, receiving over 15,000 visits per month. The website is valued at €6,000 and has more than 240 backlinks.

We also have a large portfolio of clients, both individuals and companies.

The Barcelona business is for sale for €34,000, and the brand can be included for an additional €40,000. It has significant potential and also includes VR products and accessories.

The Madrid franchise could also be transferred if there is interest in acquiring the entire business, with the price being separate from those indicated above.

Unique selling points

The reason for the transfer is personal (change of address). Although the current situation has influenced this, it has only brought forward the transfer date, which we had already scheduled. It should be completed before May 1, 2020. Hence the very affordable price.
