Company history/background

Self-service laundromat and dry cleaner in the heart of Madrid's financial district, with a loyal customer base both from the area and through app subscriptions. It's two years old and boasts state-of-the-art equipment acquired through a leasing agreement.

The premises are currently leased at a low price and also include a parking space in the same building. The price is negotiable, and there is the option to take over the existing lease agreement.
