Company history/background

Successful restaurant in a very popular summer town, open all year round.

The restaurant occupies a premises owned by the same person (it is not for sale) on the seafront of the town, with a large terrace at the front.

A long-term contract is offered with a very reasonable rent.

Inside there is limited space, and outside there are about 120 seats (30 tables). The terrace is partially covered and enclosed with glass.

The restaurant is very well known, with an international menu.

The town is very popular and touristy during the summer (April-September) and has a steady flow of visitors during the rest of the year on weekends, holidays and vacations.

The owner is a well-known businessman in the town and wants to sell the business in order to retire.
