Company history/background

Sale of a company dedicated to the production and sale of sausages, fresh meats, cured hams and select products.

Family group of butcher shops and delicatessens with a long tradition and well-known products in several cities in the province of Barcelona.

In total there are 5 retail outlets in several towns, with their own workshop and headquarters in Vallés Occidental, some of the outlets located in very central areas and others in municipal markets. Limited company with a stable turnover of more than €1.6M, with sales to the public and also direct sales to restaurants and catering companies.

They make their own high-quality products with low levels of additives and preservatives, and also produce hamburgers, pizzas, and other gourmet products.
