Company history/background

Unique opportunity : Transfer of Yoga One center in the heart of Barcelona

Yoga One center is for sale, fully operational , located in one of the best areas of central Barcelona , with 8 years of consolidated experience and a loyal and active community.

A mature, stable business with a proven track record, ideal for both investors and wellness professionals looking for a project that's up and running from day one.

The space is designed to offer a carefully curated experience, aligned with YogaOne's values: well-being, community, and quality. The client base is stable and diverse, with a high degree of loyalty.

This is an excellent opportunity to transfer the business for personal reasons, unrelated to the operation of the business.

Yoga One Center specializes in holistic wellness, with its main activity focused on teaching yoga classes in various styles and levels, aimed at improving physical and mental health. The center has a well-established community of active members and a stable operation after several years of continuous service.

The company operates in a fully equipped space, with defined processes, a trained team and a leading brand in the sector, allowing for immediate business continuity and growth potential.
