Company history/background

The acquisition of a language school and extracurricular activities located in Poblenou (Barcelona), one of the neighborhoods with the highest demographic growth and concentration of families in the city, is offered.

With over 10 years of experience, the center has consolidated a highly profitable business model based on student loyalty, an exclusive scientifically validated methodology, and a diversified educational offering.

The school works with its own methodology backed by more than 25 years of scientific research , the support of the European Commission and exclusive teaching materials developed after an investment of more than 4 million euros .

Educational Offer

The business combines different lines of activity that diversify revenue:

- Languages for children from 1 year old.
- English, French and German programs for students aged 3 to 12.
- Extracurricular activities taught directly in schools.
- Urban camps during Christmas, Easter and summer.

Unique selling points

Its high revenue recurrence, above-average profitability, and multiple growth levers make this opportunity an ideal platform for both strategic operators and financial investors.

Highly recurring revenue

The average student retention period of approximately four years provides high visibility into future revenue and significantly reduces business risk.

Proven business model

More than a decade of consolidated activity, high family satisfaction and a solid reputation in its area of influence.

Profitability superior to the sector

The business generates an EBITDA margin of 33% , reflecting a lean, efficient and easily scalable structure.

Exclusive methodology

The school uses its own scientifically validated pedagogical method, supported by the European Commission and backed by exclusive teaching materials developed after an investment of over 4 million euros.
