Sale of a development and construction company based in a major town in the province of Huesca.

An investment partner is sought for a company specializing in the development and construction of tourist apartments. The project involves transforming existing houses into an aparthotel with a spa and a wide range of tourist services. Currently, they have ten apartments. The natural surroundings are ideal for both gastronomic and mountain tourism. Furthermore, the property boasts a privileged location steeped in history.

Currently, it is an expanding project that can be extended throughout the town.

It has over 50,000 square meters of land, of which 3,000 are designated for parking areas. The plan is to build an aparthotel with extensive leisure and recreational facilities.

RRP €800,000 (for 30% of the company shares)
