Sale of children's leisure center (C-7623) domiciled in Madrid.

This is a children's leisure center where all kinds of celebrations can be held for the little ones. Children who choose to celebrate their birthdays here become the true stars of their own party. They offer birthday parties with a variety of themes, from science and art to beauty and costumes. All their activities are created in collaboration with educators, scientists, and children's entertainers to create a fun, educational program full of values that allow the little ones to enjoy themselves, learn different techniques, enhance their creativity and skills, boost their self-esteem, and promote socialization. The children carry out the activities individually, with the supervision and support of the entertainers, but using their own hands. The center not only wants the children to play and learn, but also to reinforce the educational values they receive through the interaction in their workshops and the different games used in each activity, so they can replicate them at home. It has a strategically located and fully equipped premises of approximately 126 square meters, available for rent at a monthly rent of 800 euros. It is distributed as follows: shop area, leisure area, kitchenette, snack area, and office space. Target Sale Price: €30,000
