Company history/background

The Strait Viewpoint is a café located in a unique place in the world. From its viewpoint, you can see the African continent just 20 kilometers away.

Making it a strategic location with a client portfolio from all parts of the world and a forty-year history.

The viewpoint has its own property of 102,000 square meters and 133 square meters built on the land.

The cafeteria consists of a dining room and a glass window overlooking the estate and the African continent.

It has a professional catering kitchen, a warehouse to store all the products, and rooms for the owners.

An outdoor terrace and two bathrooms for guests.

We currently operate a food menu, an ice cream parlor, a souvenir shop, and all kinds of products to eat in or take away on the spot.

Unique selling points

It is the only inn where you can have any drink or food along the entire route from Algeciras to Tarifa.

Other

It has a property with an area of 102,000 square meters in which you can invest in any idea or project.

With unique views in the world and excellent road accessibility.

Connecting to the city of Algeciras in fifteen minutes and to Tarifa in eight minutes.

Being one hour from Malaga airport
