Company history/background

A company dedicated to the hotel industry is for sale.

- The company owns two concessions, one in the city center and the other on the beachfront.

- The investment would be recovered in about 2 years and there would be between 2 and 5 years of concession remaining.

- All 33 employees would stay, only 3 of them with more than 1 year of seniority.
- In addition, the company is in a position to acquire a third concession in the city.
- All documentation, the company's valuation from 2019, and management and financial figures can be presented at a meeting with the owner.
