Company history/background

Supermarket with over 18 years of history, experiencing increasing sales since its inception, which have been further boosted by the current coronavirus pandemic. The supermarket for sale includes the premises, merchandise, machinery, and shelving.

Supermarket located in the municipality of Teror, Gran Canaria, dedicated to the sale of fresh and non-fresh food products, alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, cleaning and everyday use products.

After 18 years of sales with good results, and having also benefited from the current situation, increasing the number of sales, the opportunity has been taken to renew the refrigerators, which are completely new, in addition to painting the premises.

Unique selling points

A single supermarket in Teror, Gran Canaria.

Other

Supermarket with over 18 years of history and sales, which, due to the retirement of the people who are selling it, is looking for a buyer to manage the business and take charge of it.
