Company history/background

I am selling a business founded in 2001 dedicated to selling top-brand sporting goods such as Skechers, Adidas, NB, etc. It consists of 6 physical retail locations with an approximate stock of 250,000 items (depending on the season), a website with online sales and wholesale options, over 5,000 loyal customers with credit cards, and around 15,000 followers across various social media platforms. The business has great potential for growth. I am selling because my personal circumstances have changed and I can no longer manage it.

Direct sales to customers at physical locations. Online sales. Sales to clubs, groups, municipalities, etc. Wholesale. Franchise opportunities available. All top brands in the sector such as Adidas, Reebok, New Balance, Asics, Joma, etc. I have between 15 and 20 employees depending on the season. Of the 6 physical retail locations, 5 are rented and 1 is owned.

Unique selling points

Great opportunity for growth in online sales, wholesale, or franchise creation.

Other

The business is attractive to investors. If the buyer wishes, I would stay on to manage the business.
