Company history/background

A chain of stores specializing in basketball equipment from leading international brands, with locations nationwide. One of the few authorized retailers of NBA products in Spain.

They have an optimized website with high traffic and have developed an e-commerce platform that sells throughout Europe. This channel is currently experiencing the greatest growth; in 2020 alone, they generated over €380,000 in revenue. Furthermore, the company has a strong presence on social media.

The business has not been affected by the health crisis, showing continuous growth.
