Company history/background

Supermarket for sale in a town in the province of Seville. The premises have a favorable lease agreement, two part-time employees, and high turnover in its first three months of operation. The sale is due to circumstances beyond the company's control. All necessary licenses are in place, and the entire 188 square meters of retail space have been completely renovated, leaving them perfectly equipped. The machinery, lighting, and equipment are new, installed, and ready for use. The supermarket also has a fresh produce section. The adjacent property is paved, and an agreement can be reached to open a parking area.
