Company history/background

Magnificent business purchase opportunity of a family-owned company with several decades of experience in the import/export trade of fresh fish and seafood.

The company is well known in the sector for its commitment to quality, customer proximity, and passion for providing the best service in all processes. It boasts an important client portfolio including hostelry, wholesalers, and retailers throughout the Iberian Peninsula.

Furthermore, the company has experience and potential clients in the Italian and French markets.

Unique selling points

The company has facilities and warehouses at the Vigo Fishing Port, the most important in Europe, from where merchandise is shipped daily to any location in Spain and Europe. It also has facilities at the Almeria Fishing Port, providing direct distribution to the most significant hostelry businesses in Almeria and surrounding areas.

Other

This is an excellent opportunity for companies wishing to develop their activity in the crucial and continuously growing food sector, as well as for companies looking to expand and/or diversify their business with a total guarantee of success. We have the appropriate facilities and means, as well as the necessary knowledge and experience to achieve ambitious objectives, with unlimited growth potential in both national and international markets.
