Company history/background

This opportunity involves the acquisition of a Spanish clinic specializing in aesthetic medicine and hair restoration. The clinic offers hair transplant services, regenerative hair treatments, facial aesthetic medicine, and smart-aging solutions.

The company has developed a scalable operating model that combines centralized management, standardized clinical protocols, robust digital patient acquisition capabilities, and a highly qualified medical team. This integrated approach fosters operational efficiency, high patient satisfaction, and attractive profitability.

In addition to its core business in hair restoration, the company launched new beauty and wellness services in 2025, expanding its revenue streams and generating greater cross-selling opportunities among its patients.

Other

The business owner is considering selling the company through a share purchase or asset sale transaction.

The transaction includes:

- The brand and operating platform
- The fully equipped clinic and its medical infrastructure
- The team, processes, CRM, website, and domain
- Customer and supplier relationships
- Operational know-how and standardized procedures
- The transfer/assignment of the clinic lease

Owner and Management Team Transition

The current management is prepared to support the transition process in order to ensure business continuity and operational stability.
