Business for sale specializing in gourmet products, Christmas hampers, and corporate gifts. We don't have a physical store; we sell directly from our warehouse, so the business can be operated from anywhere and managed remotely.

The company's business is divided between sales to individuals through our online store specializing in gourmet gift baskets, and sales to businesses. In this latter area, our company works year-round with various companies that organize events, loyalty programs, and so on. And of course, the Christmas season is our busiest time of year.

Furthermore, our catalog is well positioned on Amazon, whose channel is becoming increasingly important in sales to individuals and businesses.

The business is ideal for two people for most of the year, and extras are needed during any campaigns that may arise.

The growth potential is very high, and the corporate client base is very loyal. We offer our full support to ensure a smooth transfer of the entire client portfolio, allowing you to continue providing the same level of service.

In addition to the goodwill, we are selling all the stock of products and the packaging material necessary for shipments, and we make all our know-how in the business available to the buyer, including providing training if necessary.

The reasons for the sale will be explained personally to those interested, and all necessary documentation will be provided.
