Sale of rubber and latex company domiciled in a major town in Barcelona.

We are seeking an investment partner to establish a company dedicated to the manufacture of products made from latex, rubber, silicone, and plastic. This includes compression and injection molding of rubbers, silicones, and plastics, as well as silicone molds for low-melt applications in rubber and silicone. The goal is to manufacture at low cost while maintaining acceptable quality to compete in the Chinese market.

The company will strive to be price-competitive, in addition to offering high-quality products.

Currently, it is a project that will try to make its way into the international market in order to compete with the Chinese market, which is currently the most consolidated in this sector.

They have a warehouse of approximately 500 square meters, which they rent. In total, they have 120 square meters of office space.

High profitability.

RRP: €95,000
