Home-delivered electrostimulation gym equipment for sale in Santander.

This is a business dedicated to electrostimulation gyms, belonging to a major franchise, offering its clients a method that provides more strength, more endurance and better health in less training time.

Active training (physical exercise) is combined with simultaneous external stimulation via EMS. This unique combination leads to an additional increase in muscle tension and metabolism, producing highly effective training results unattainable with conventional methods in less time. The devices used are state-of-the-art, guaranteeing results, comfort, and safety during training.

Today it is a well-established business with a large client base.

They have a rental property of approximately 120 square meters. The monthly rent is approximately 1,200 euros.

Target Selling Price: €175,000
