Sale of gift shops located in a major town in the province of Murcia.

This is a well-known business in the area specializing in gifts. They have been in the sector since 2013, offering their customers a clear and distinctive objective: to create gifts that stand out and express affection. Their team is expert at transforming the world of gift-giving into a unique way to express feelings. They set trends with their gift-wrapping choices, recognizing that first impressions are the most memorable. They carry some of the best brands in the industry, some exclusively.

Among other services, they offer their clients parcel collection and delivery for major companies. They also supply their clients with all kinds of school supplies, toys, Halloween accessories, and more.

In recent times they have experienced great growth thanks to their online store.

Today it is a business with a recognized prestige and a large client portfolio.

They have a rented premises of approximately two hundred square meters, with a monthly rent of approximately one thousand and twenty euros. It is divided into a shop area, storage area, and office.
